FUNERAL PLAN

A funeral plan created for you by your local independent funeral director

For many people, planning their funeral has become an established way of looking at the future, just like making a Will.

More than a million people in Great Britain have taken out a funeral plan, over 420,000 of them with Golden Charter. Usually, they have known the grief of bereavement and don't want their families to go through the stress of making arrangements.

Many have established a relationship of trust with their local family funeral director. Who better to advise them on such a sensitive topic and assist them with all the details?

We believe that the Independent Way Funeral Plan, which is available only through independent funeral directors such as ourselves, offers you significant advantages over other plans. The following pages explain the reasons why.

Planning your funeral the Independent Way

With the Independent Way plan, we will make sure that your loved ones will be spared much of the stress and uncertainty of organising a funeral. You'll have specified every detail in advance and taken care of all the costs that are within our control.

A guarantee that covers all our services

No matter how much our services may rise in cost in years to come, once your plan is fully in place, neither you nor your loved ones will be asked for a penny more for them.

It's a guarantee that gives you peace of mind. You can be assured that your family will be spared what could be a financial worry.

There are some costs that are beyond our control that we are obliged to pay on your behalf. These third party costs include the charges of cemeteries and crematoria, as well as doctors' fees for cremation certificates, the fees of clergy or officiants and the costs of newspaper notices and memorials. The amount of this expenditure is not within our control and may require a further payment at the time of need.

A sound financial decision

When you take out an Independent Way plan, you have the reassurance that your money is protected. You select how you wish to pay for your plan and, depending on your choice, your money is paid into the Golden Charter Trust or to one of the UK's leading life assurance companies.

Your money grows and, when the time comes, we receive the payment, including any growth, and use this money to provide the agreed services to your family. No matter how much costs have risen in the intervening period, your loved ones will not be asked for a penny more for the guaranteed services included within your plan.

The Golden Charter Trust

The Board of Trustees has appointed a wide panel of Fund Managers who invest the funds in a cautious and balanced manner. Barnett Waddingham of Glasgow, the consulting actuaries, appraise the Fund performance regularly. leading life assurance companies.

Your wishes fulfilled by a proven partnership

Most people don't want to think about arranging their own funeral. That's natural. But there is some quiet satisfaction to be gained from putting your affairs in order and reflecting on the most appropriate arrangements.

Many personal decisions have to be made. Your wishes are special – and you can be sure we will carry them out to the letter in association with Golden Charter, a British-owned and run company. We guarantee that your family or estate will not be asked for a penny more for the services you have selected that are within our financial control.

Funeral directors' services typically include:

- Professional charges. These represent a high proportion of a funeral director's costs and include making all arrangements for cremation or burial
- Conveyance of the deceased from the place of death to the funeral director's premises, a chapel of rest or other suitable location
- Caring for the deceased and attending to the hygienic preparation necessary to allow viewing, if requested by family or friends
- Advice on the certification and registration of death and related documentation
- Provision of a hearse and other funeral vehicles
- Advice on bereavement counselling

A balanced approach to third party costs

As stated on page two, third party costs are not within our financial control. These expenses include the fees for the cemetery, crematorium, doctors (for cremation certificates) and clergy or officiant, which will be costed at today's prices in your plan.

Your payment is held with a view to maintaining a level of growth at least equivalent to the increases in inflation.

However, if at the time of the funeral, the increase in the third party costs is greater than the growth, we would have the option to approach the family for an additional amount.

Third party costs may include:

- Crematorium fee
- Doctors' fees (applicable only to cremation)
- Clergy/officiant's fee
- Purchase of grave or lair
- Cemetery fee: the opening of an existing or new grave for burial or interment of cremated remains
- Hire of church or other venue
- Fees of organist or soloist
- Memorial, such as a headstone, entry in a book of remembrance or planting of a tree
- Catering, floral tributes and newspaper announcements

Why there is a plan administration fee

It is necessary for a one-off plan administration fee to be applied to the cost of every plan. This fee covers all of Golden Charter's costs in setting up the plan, the work involved in the preparation of the funeral arrangements and our appointment as your selected funeral director.

Endorsed by leading bodies of the funeral profession

The Independent Way is recommended by the National Society of Allied and Independent Funeral Directors.

Golden Charter is the only funeral plan provider recommended by the National Society of Allied and Independent Funeral Directors (SAIF), which was established in 1989 to serve the interests and needs of independent funeral directors nationwide. More than 60% of funerals in the UK are carried out by independent funeral directors.

Golden Charter has been accepted as a 'Registered Provider' by the Funeral Planning Authority.

The Funeral Planning Authority was created in response to Government legislation introduced to protect plan holder's interests.

Customers purchasing a plan from a Registered Provider have the reassurance that they are dealing with one of the most reputable companies in the industry, one which maintains high standards and protects its plan holders' funds.

A beautiful way to be remembered

Since 1995, Golden Charter has helped the Woodland Trust, the UK's leading conservation charity, plant over 250,000 trees through our unique relationship. As a corporate sponsor of the Woodland Trust, Golden Charter is proud to make an annual donation to help to create woodland across the UK.

If you would like details of the Woodland Trust sites in the UK and information on legacies, please visit www.woodlandtrust.org.uk

Would you like to talk more about it?

We appreciate that the decision to buy a funeral plan is not something to be arrived at lightly.

If you'd like to discuss it in more detail, we will gladly meet you at our premises or in your home at any time you choose. Alternatively, you may prefer to talk about it over the phone. It doesn't matter how often you call us, we'll be delighted to help. Our sole aim is to help you arrive at a decision that will give you peace of mind.

What you'll receive

If you are paying by single payment, we'll send you a Certificate of Entitlement to funeral services and a membership card, which should be kept in a safe place. You'll also receive a copy of the Certificate of Entitlement to give to your next of kin so they are aware that you hold a plan, and know how to proceed when the time comes. If you are not paying by a single payment, a provisional membership card will be issued to you which will be replaced by a full membership card and a Certificate of Entitlement when the total amount payable has been paid.

Change of address

If you move home, please notify Golden Charter as soon as possible, to allow them to update their records.

If you'd like to speak to Golden Charter at any time, please call one of their customer service advisors free on 0800 833 800.

Your questions answered

Here are some answers to the most frequently asked questions about the Independent Way plan.

What if I move to a different area?

You may select a different funeral director. Golden Charter should be advised of any permanent change of address as this may affect the plan entitlements (see terms and conditions).

What if death occurs while I'm on holiday?

As an additional benefit, Golden Charter will pay the transportation charges if death occurs away from your permanent address, but still within mainland UK. If you intend to travel overseas, we recommend that your travel or medical insurance policy includes full cover for repatriation costs to your funeral director's premises.

What if I'm not in good health?

We promise to accept your application, regardless of your state of health.

What if I want to take out a plan for someone else?

Complete the plan holder's representative box on the application form, and we'll arrange for all correspondence to be sent to you. Complete confidentiality is assured.

What if I live to be 100 years old?

No matter how old you are, no matter how much funeral costs may rise, you and your loved ones will never be asked for a penny more for the services and costs guaranteed within your funeral plan (see terms and conditions).

SIMPLY CREMATION

For a simple, straightforward cremation funeral without a service.

More and more people over the past number of years have been requesting a funeral to take place without a service.

This can be for a whole host of reasons: maybe the deceased has no immediate family remaining or it may be that their family resides in other parts of the world.

Alternatively, their family may have no wish for the funeral ceremony as we know it today and may instead prefer to hold a remembrance service in a church or possibly their home or even at a hotel where people can celebrate the life of the deceased.

They may wish to have the cremated remains returned to them for a scattering by friends and family in a meaningful and memorable location.

Whichever options you prefer, we can fit the necessities of a cremation funeral around your wishes via our Simply Cremation service.

We will aim to take your loved one into our care within one hour then prepare them for the cremation by dressing them and placing them into an Arran coffin. A funeral director will complete all necessary legal documentation and then, in due course, take your loved one to a crematorium of our choice where the cremation will take place privately. If the families wish to receive the cremated remains these would be returned to them immediately.

The cost for our Simply Cremation service - £1000

Funeral plan option and cost (price of chosen service + Funeral plan administration fee £299) + additional options.

SIMPLY BURIAL

For a simple, straightforward interment funeral without a service.

More and more people over the past number of years have been requesting a funeral to take place without a service or being present at the burial.

This can be for a whole host of reasons: maybe the deceased has no immediate family remaining or it may be that their family resides in other parts of the world.

Alternatively, their family may have no wish for the funeral or graveside ceremony as we know it today and may instead prefer to hold a remembrance service in a church or possibly their home or even at a hotel where people can celebrate the life of the deceased.

Whichever options you prefer, we can fit the necessities of a burial funeral around your wishes via our Simply Burial service.

We will aim to take your loved one into our care within one hour then prepare them for the cremation by dressing and placing them into an Arran coffin. A funeral director will complete all necessary legal documentation and then, in due course, take your loved one to the cemetery of your choice where the burial will take place privately. Of course, family and friends will be able to visit the graveside at their own preferred time at any time after the burial.

The cost for our Simply Burial service - £1600 + Cost of new Lair if required

Funeral plan option and cost (price of chosen service + Funeral plan administration fee £299) + additional options.

PARLOUR CREMATION

For a simple, cremation funeral at any time of the evening or at weekends, without attendance at the crematorium.

Fosters Funeral Directors conduct many services weekly within our main premises, Serenity House. Our Service Room was purpose-built for families who wish to hold a funeral service at any time of the day, night or weekend.

Many mourners struggle to receive time off work which may make it impossible for them to attend a loved one's funeral. Having an evening or weekend service time may therefore suit both families and mourners alike.

Most funeral services in the USA and Canada are conducted this fashion; loved ones will attend the full service at the funeral home and the deceased is then cremated privately thereafter.

With our Purely Parlour Cremation service, we aim to take your loved one into our care within one hour then prepare them for the cremation by dressing them and then placing them into an Arran coffin. A funeral director would complete all necessary legal documentation and liaise with the family to choose a suitable time for the funeral service to take place.

We would also arrange for a humanist, civil celebrant, priest or minister to conduct the service which can include organist for hymns and music for before during and after the service. A funeral tea then can be held within the parlour if you so wish or alternatively return to a hotel or your home. Your loved one would then be taken to a crematorium where the cremation would take place privately.

Our Service Room holds 80 people.

For families wishing to receive cremated remains, these would be returned immediately after the cremation.

The cost for our Parlour Cremation service - £1300

Funeral plan option and cost (price of chosen service + Funeral plan administration fee £299) + additional options.
